Fire Department's Service Above Self

Carol Stark shares this bit of news: In conjunction with Loveland's Cherry Celebration, July 15, the Loveland Fire Rescue Authority will be celebrating 140 years of service. At Station #1, near the Loveland Museum, you can see antique fire apparatus, live fire demonstrations, and have "touch a truck" opportunities. Come show support!

140 Years of Service!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Annalise Mecham (Thumbnail): Annalise's own 2-minute life story goes something like this (just some highlights)... • She was born and grew up in Charlottesville, VA. • After that, she got her college education and started a family (husband of 23 yrs and 2 boys) in New England (New Hampshire, Cape Cod, Boston). • Just 5 yrs ago, they decided to start a whole new life - they packed up and moved to Northern Colorado! • Annalise is Development Director for BGCLC; she enjoys every aspect of nonprofit management.

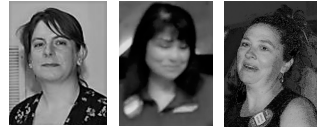

Carol Stark (Recognition): Becky Grob received her newest Paul Harris award (PH+5).

Don Wells (New Member Inductions): Don welcomed three new Loveland Rotarians, who are each also organizational members.

WELCOME TO OUR CLUB!

Tom Carrigan (KidsPak Update): On Jun 20, Loveland City Council voted to waive the development fees for the construction of KidsPak's new warehouse (over $100 K). Yeah!

Jerry Westbrook (New Sign): Loveland's new welcoming sign (with the logos of four service clubs - incl. Rotary) will be officially unveiled on Fri, Jun 7, at 11 AM. All are invited to the ceremonial event.

Chris White (Duck Race): Three updates: ① We still have volunteer openings for Loveland Loves BBQ, Bands, and Brews. ② If you don't have a Duck Race t-shirt and cap, they will be available at each ticket-sales event. ③ If you've arranged a sponsorship, please pick up your large ducks and deliver them to sponsors asap!

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

The traditional roasting of outgoing president Irv Johnson was striking for one key reason

Thank You, Mr. President

- it was all good! There was hardly a sarcastic barb hurled at our illustrious leader. (We hope you weren't disappointed President Irv. That's what you get for leading with such grace and humor this past year.)
