ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dave Mills (Literacy) Please see Dave if you can volunteer to recruit parents of preschoolers for the Imagination Library book program, our new literacy initiative.

Chris White (Duck Race) Last weekend, we raised the bar again on ticket sales at the Loveland Farmers Market, bringing in $950! We still have many, many opportunities to volunteer. This is where “Service Above Self” becomes real. It’s easy to sign up online!

Gail Daugherty (Duck Numbering) We can also really use your help at the ritual where we number our 7,000 ducks: 5:30 PM (till we’re done), Aug 23, at Gail’s house. Refreshments provided during and after.

Diane Lapierre (New Member Mixer) If you are a new member since 2019, don’t forget our first post-COVID new member orientation and social gathering on Thursday, August 18, from 4 - 6 p.m., at the home of Mary McCambridge. Please RSVP to Diane Lapierre at dldlapierre69@gmail.com or 720-204-0749.

PROGRAM

Bob Eatman took us on a journey into the history of our club’s Four Way Test program (more than 15 years) at the middle schools, as well as through the timeline of a typical session with students. This program is a tool to help 8th Grade students learn good decision making. During the school year, Loveland Rotarians go into 8th grade classrooms, where the students are split into 5-6 groups, each facilitated by a Rotarian. The small groups analyze real-world scenarios (written by previous 8th graders), which are relevant to their age group and present a problem to be solved by applying the Four Way Test. At the end, each group presents their solution to the whole class. No teaching experience is required on the part of our volunteer facilitators, though they are trained by seasoned facilitators and observe the process before being in charge of a group of students. Teachers are always present and enthusiastically support this program.

“Each Four-Way Test student group gives a brief presentation of their collective problem-solving thought process.
