ANNOUNCEMENTS

Jim Epstein (Update on Dick): Dick Schilling's condition is improving while he's in rehab; he'll be home soon! (Help for Hawaii): Please help our fellow Rotarians and their neighbors by donating to District 5000's Maui Relief Fund. See the letter attached to Editarian's weekly email for Aug 22 meeting.

Nanci Garnand (Svc Opportunity): Ann Bunyan will host former Rotary Exchange student Lydia Snyder (Germany, 1992-93) and her 2 children, Aug 21-30. Contact Ann or Nanci if you can help provide activities for this visiting family.

Gail Daugherty (Special Events): Gail will host the annual pre-race Duck Numbering Party at her home on Aug 22, 5:30 PM. All members are invited.

Jerry Westbrook (Sculpture Festival): At Loveland's annual fine art festival, 27 states were represented; a sculpture of 7 Rotary Wheels sold for $23,000!

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Award-winning author Daniel Jorgensen, who is also a Rotarian and lives in Milliken, spoke on "The Process of Writing and Publishing Books." Several of his books were available for purchase at the meeting.

A native of Minnesota, Dan Jorgensen grew up on a South Dakota farm, attended a one-room country school and was the first member of his family to attend college, earning degrees in journalism and public relations from South Dakota State University with further coursework in creative writing and film at Colorado State University. A U.S. Army infantry veteran, he also is an Honor Graduate from the U.S. Defense Information School (DINFOS).

Dan has had a long career as a writer, editor, and educator, winning awards for his work in all three fields. The author of 8 books, 3 songs and a one-act play, he also has contributed to two anthologies and written hundreds of news, sports and feature stories, as both a journalist and public relations writer.
