ANNOUNCEMENTS

Nicole Whitenight

(Fellowship) The fellowship committee will meet at 10:30

AM, Tuesday, Aug 9, in Room 1, at MVPC (our meeting site). We need your new ideas for engaging members!

Dave Mills (Literacy) Our club is now a partnering nonprofit (along with United Way) with Dolly Parton's Imagination Library, a national literacy program that for the past 25 years has mailed free, high quality books each month to children, ages 0-5. We'll soon need volunteers to recruit children for this, at Loveland's 13 early childhood centers. See Dave to get involved!

Chris White (Duck Race) Our last weekend's ticket sales at Loveland Farmers Market topped $650 - a great result. We'll have lots of volunteering opportunities at the Corn Roast Festival, coming soon!

PROGRAM

Mary Camp brought with her several of this year's RYLA (Rotary Youth Leadership Awards) camp students to give us a sense of the growth and learning these kids come away with, at these annual camps (although this is the first year since pre-COVID). From our district, at YMCA of the Rockies, 180 RYLA & 236 Young RYLA students (who must apply and interview for this) come to learn group communication and leadership skills, as well as enjoy lots of games and sports activities. Our guest students relayed their personal stories of growth and the joy of making new friends.

You may via Zoom!
