ANNOUNCEMENTS

Rick Parker (Duck Race Success): This year’s fundraiser was a smash success despite the lingering COVID pandemic. Sponsorships totaled $19,000 - up $3,000 from 2020; ticket sales totaled $13,000 - an all-time club record! The Duck Race Team was able to deliver a check for $29,000 to LRC Foundation.

Julie Marko (Thumbnail): New red badge member Julie spoke briefly of her life and work:
• Moved to Loveland with husband 2 years ago - right before the fires and COVID
• She’s been a long-term care administrator, walking with many seniors in their last chapter of life
• Has relocated several times with Good Samaritan, and was active in several Rotary clubs
• Favorite vacation was doing the Camino de Santiago pilgrimage, in Spain

Co-Pres Gail (Rotary Social Event): Hamid & Janice Eslan have graciously offered to hold a Rotary After Hours at their home, on Sep 23, 5:30-7:30 PM. Their address is 1701 Stove Prairie, Loveland 80538.

Jerry Westbrook (Rotary Moment): 25 years ago, City Manager Brian Moeck asked the City Council for $180,000 to complete the Hammond Amphitheater in North Lake Park - a legendary LRC-sponsored project.

PROGRAM

“Four-Way Test in Action” by Co-Presidents Nicole & Gail. Members had interesting table discussions about an ethical scenario featured in the New York Times (“How Much Must I Give Up for My Schizophrenic Brother?”) - one involving the weighing of a sibling’s needs against one’s own. Comments included:
• Seek professional help (or an outside consultant) for family. • Do they have all the information available – all of the truth? • If the burden didn’t exist, maybe some of the relationships would improve - build goodwill?

American psychologist Abraham Maslow, best known for his theory of the “Hierarchy of Needs,” reminds us that our progress in life is up to us - as long as we have the courage to move forward into the unknown.
