ANNOUNCEMENTS

Jeff Swanty (Big Party): Jeff put out another invite to our club's

Oct. 1 Part (at Ellis Ranch) - particularly promoting the Classic Car Show to be held that night. He has lined up some exciting cars you'll want to see: some magazine-featured cars and winners of car show awards, as well as a 1964 Mustang convertible and a 1964 Thunderbird convertible owned by your fellow Rotarians.
You won't want to miss this... so please don't delay any longer in registering for our party!

David Carmichael (Call for Volunteers): Our Literacy Committee needs several folks to participate as tutors in our elementary school reading program. It only takes 1-2 hours a week when you do it, and it's easy to sign up. You can make a difference in these kids' lives!

Pat Williams (Did You Know?): Would you have been able to guess which Loveland Rotarian this is?

I was President George H.W. Bush's Chaplain.

Evan Hyatt (Thumbnail): Red-badger
Evan treated us with his 3 min. life story.

Some Highlights: • Evan grew up in the Colo Spgs area. • After graduating from CSU, he began a career in marketing and communications at the Lincoln Center (Fort Collins). • He learned about Hospice care in the early 2000's, has been working in that field ever since, and now is CEO/President of Pathways. Welcome to our club, Evan!

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Heart & Sol Executive Director Caitlin Wyrick gave us an overview of this dynamic nonprofit that promotes ethnic and cultural awareness and inclusion in Loveland and Northern Colorado, in partnership with other local nonprofits.
The group acts as an advocate for inclusion in health equity, education,
and social change.
