POEM:

Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening
by Robert Frost

Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village, though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lovely, dark and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

NON Meeting
26 Nov Program

Kevin Cook, the speaker for the (cancelled) 26 November meeting, will be re-booked at a later date.

ANNOUNCEMENT from Non Meeting:
The Rotary Meeting of 26 November was canceled because of the snow event. Those of you from North Dakota may not take this event as serious, but the (mere) Coloradans took it seriously. Quiz: When was the last time our club meeting was canceled once scheduled? The Acting Editarian does not know, but those of you with long memories might.
