FARMERS RELIEF

No more distributions during the last week, but some good news on the donation front and we are still waiting for the second tanker of Molafos to be delivered to the Ensay area.

We were contacted by a group of nuns in Melbourne, who had heard about what we were doing via the internet and the exposure that the Shopping Days gave us. After a discussion with a Sister Anne, we received a donation from the Brigidine Sisters, which is very much appreciated. Then we received another sizeable donation from the Rotary Club of Koo Wee Rup which has added to our funds, this just came out of the blue. Gillian met with a local business who have expressed an interest in donating monies, so we will keep our fingers crossed on that one. As you have seen in the local paper, St Mary's Op Shop are donating all proceeds from the sales in the shop on Saturday 13 April, so we will wait and see what that outcome is.

We are in discussions with the Freemasons Victoria, who are holding a raffle to be drawn on the weekend of May 4, with half of the proceeds being donated to Farmers Relief. A couple of our members have been invited to attend the gala dinner in Melbourne, so it should make for a great occasion. As you can see, Farmers Relief has developed a life of its own and seems to generate donations without much effort.

36th Annual Charity Golf and Bowls Day

Another successful Golf Day bites the dust, the 36th to be precise and although there were concerns about the weather, the heavens looked down on us favourably, so although cool and windy, no rain.

Over 80 golfers participated as well as 80 bowlers, Rex and Geoff were extremely pleased with the turn out. As usual the Bower Birds did a stellar job of catering for the day, plus selling a large percentage of the tickets in the fuel raffle, as a result it looks as if there will be about $7000 to donate to these ladies, which they will use to purchase much needed equipment for the local hospital. Rumour has it that they are not ready yet to give up their role in the golf day, so they could be back next year to do it all again.

A big thankyou to Rex, Geoff, John W, Bonnie and John C who all helped make this a great day for all concerned. Rex had a smile on his face as his team came second and he ended up holding a rather large table lamp as his share of the loot.

As you may remember he won the fuel raffle last year, well his next door neighbour won it this time, so the moral of the story I think, is to buy your tickets from the Estoppeys.
