FARMERS RELIEF

The latest news is that we were offered a load of medium size bales from a farmer in Glengarry, recommended to us via Gippsland Farmers Relief. Rex contacted the farmer who was willing to donate the load, but we would have to arrange transport. Through contacts, he was able to organise transport by a local farmer. It was all picked up and then taken to several farmers in Glenaladale, once again a great job done.

We have received a few more donations of money from the following organisations:

The Rotary Club of Trafalgar
The Eagle Point Primary School
The Rotary Club of Inverloch
The Warragul Cake Decorators
Private donation

So we now have additional funds to buy hay or distribute more vouchers.

Our help was greatly appreciated according to our members.

Commemorative Plaques

John Crawford will now be the contact in our club for the commemorative plaques that we provide at the two gazebos at the Bairnsdale Cemetery. This has been a long-term project for our club and was started to help off set the cost to build the gazebos.
