PETE'S PRATTLE

At last !!!! Back at the Central Hotel tonight for the first time in months.

We received a warm welcome from Tyson and his team at the Central – they did miss us. And to see a good roll-up of Rotarians and friends made the evening a real pleasure.

Little to report since the Bulletin last Sunday, except to remind everyone about our two upcoming Christmas events

Our two Christmas functions this year have now been finalised, given that Covid rules have been relaxed.

Wednesday 8 December 2021 – We will be holding our own Club's Christmas Party at the Lakes Tyers Fishing Clubrooms. Those of you who came to our meeting at Lake Tyers on 27 October will agree what a great venue it is for a casual get together. We will have the BBQ roaring again and, this time, all attendees should bring their own BBQ food to cook, and their own drinks of course. Any salads or nibbles will also be most welcome. Please contact Lesley – 0419 871 197 – so we know you will be there.

Monday 13 December 2021 – This event is an opportunity to meet with Rotarians from each of the Clubs in our Cluster. It is particularly important to me, and others, as we try to create a sense of unity within our Cluster, especially as we end a very tough year.

The Christmas function will be held at the Bairnsdale RSL Club – the first event of its type since we held our party to celebrate 100 years of Rotary in Australia. It will consist of a full Christmas dinner at $35 per head. Our District Governor Bill Degnan, and his wife Judy, will also be attending.

We will need to know numbers so please contact Lesley – 0419 871 197.

We have acquired the use of GLCH's minibus for some of those who need transport to and from Bairnsdale.

We would really enjoy a good attendance from Lakes Entrance.
