

Presents:

Make A Promise:

Understanding Substance Use Disorders

Featuring

The Today I Matter Poster Project

Of 140+ faces of the thousands of young lives lost to addiction in Connecticut

Justin
Simsbury

Diesel Mechanic / Heart of Gold

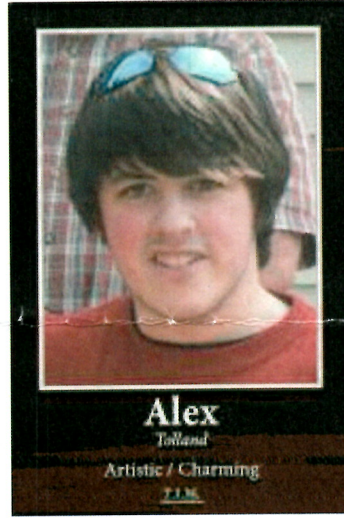

T.I.M.

Bethany
Willington

Animal Lover / Unforgettable Laugh

T.I.M.

Alex
Tolland

Artistic / Charming

T.I.M.

Kasia
Woodstock

Radiant / Generous

T.I.M.

Monday, November 18, 2019

1:30 to 4:30 P. M.

Simsbury High School

Food Trucks!

Music!

Prizes and Giveaways!

This event is FREE and open to ALL!

Rope Bridge, Photo Booth, Scavenger Hunt, and More!

A Promise to Jordan is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit named for Simsbury High School graduate, Jordan Arakelian, who died from an accidental opioid overdose on June 30, 2018 at the age of 24. The mission of A Promise to Jordan is to raise awareness and eliminate the stigma of addiction, assist people in accessing quality care, and give hope that recovery is possible to those struggling with addiction.

Thank you to our generous sponsors:

Rushford

LAW OFFICES OF
JOHN D. RITSON

