I know that each member of the group came down from the top a little stronger and a little better for having been there. Yes, there were difficulties. It was tiring and the mountain was difficult. But the difficulties were faced and the mountain was conquered. The next mountain will be easier.

Life is like the mountain. It is sometimes difficult and tiring, but it is faced. And as each difficulty is conquered, the next is easier because we have become stronger.

I believe in the mountains.
The mountains are my life.

Nepalese Sherpa Tribesman, who with Sir Edmund Hillary, was the first to reach the top of Mt. Everest on May 29, 1955.

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

To encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third: The application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian to his personal, business and community life;

Fourth: The advancement of international understanding, good will, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional men united in the ideal of service.

•

THE FOUR-WAY TEST OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

First: Is it the truth?

Second: Is it fair to all concerned?

Third: Will it build Goodwill and better Friendships?

Fourth: Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
