CLUB SERVICE I

Linda Rings, Director

Several important welcoming functions of our club are included in Club Service I.

Greeters – who extend a welcoming hand to members and visitors as they arrive at our meetings. Bill Wiktor is chair of the greeters and schedules two greeters for each meeting.

Visitors Desk – visiting Rotarians from other clubs and guests of Rotarians sign in at this desk. They receive a name badge and give information that is used for introduction of guests during the meeting. Dianna Parks is chair of the Visitors Desk and schedules club members to welcome visitors.

New Member Mentorship Program – a club member is assigned as a mentor for each new member. The mentor is asked to help the new member meet club members and learn about the club for the first few month of membership. Mark Neville is the chair and matches mentors to new members.

Sergeant-at-Arms – prepares the room for the meeting, controls lights and other arrangements, encourages seating as far forward as possible, etc. John Woodruff continues to serve faithfully in this post. Our meetings run smoothly because of his behind the scenes work.

Membership Development – the Membership Development Chair is in charge of organizing efforts during the year to build the club membership. Traditionally this

Our awards luncheon will be March 27 with all three clubs in attendance at the Marriott.

COMMUNITY FOOD RESPONSE

ROTARY CLUB OF ROCHESTER SERVICE PROJECT

Glenn VanLaningham, Coordinator

The end of the year report for CFR has arrived. It shows that CRF rescued and distributed more food in 2007 than in any previous year. Three major new food donors were added to the list during 2007, which now totals 31 schools, businesses, restaurants, bakeries, grocers, hospitals, and Mayo Facilities donating their excess food for distribution to the needy. There are several additional periodic donors as well. The grand total for the year was 196,932 pounds, or nearly 99 tons of food.

A letter of thanks was sent to our Rotary club, as well as 18 other nonprofit organizations who regularly volunteer to provide service for CFR. Of the 19, fifteen are local church organizations. There are other volunteers as well, but it is the nonprofit groups that really hold it together.

Our club began service in August 2007, and currently covers the sorting and distribution every second Wednesday of the month. On a typical day, we served 94 families in 2007, representing 280 individuals. Approximately 55 persons volunteered to serve. Approximately 15 are needed for each month service day.

The next service date for our club will be February 14. If you would like to a volunteer for CFR, please call our coordinator, Glenn Vaningham, 289-2668, or e-mail him at vanlaninghams@charter.net.
