ANNOUNCEMENTS, REPORTS: Mike Holsten, President

President Mike explained the lack of visitors, guests and make-ups on the "Official Minutes" sheet as due to the RI meeting in Montreal. Sunrise was to have had six members in attendance there, but it turned out to be five. Jon Stillman was here, not there.....

President Mike also reported a "pretty good" sign-up of members for Craig Leiser's installation as D.G on June 30. There's still time to purchase tickets – do it online with Stillwater Sunrise Rotary Club. The cost ($30/person) will be added to next month's Rotary statement. Boarding the Majestic Star will begin at 5:30pm Wednesday evening at 525 Main Street. The boat will leave the dock at 6:30 and be back at 8. Wear Craig's signature color -- orange. Work assignments for the dinner, program and installation will be made next week.

Laura Moeller, our exchange student from Germany, will arrive at 6pm Thursday, Aug. 19, reported Paula Williams. Four families, two of whom are Rotarians, will be her hosts.

Lynda Halbert announced her first "grand baby," Jack, who arrived last week.

President Mike continued his recognition of special help during his soon-to-end year-as-president by citing the efforts of Roger Ruetten as Treasurer and Rick Robbins as Sergeant-at-Arms. "I really appreciate what you have done," he told both of them, to everyone's applause.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM

Rich Cummings has Peter McNiff, publisher of Stillwater Living magazine, lined up. Peter, who's a member of Stillwater Noon Rotary, is an "entertaining speaker." It'll be an 'interesting program," says Rich.

GETTING TO KNOW OUR MEMBERS

As part of a new initiative, the previous weeks host provides a semi-biographical introduction of the host for this week's program to help us to better know our membership.

Ray Queener, who introduced today's speaker, began life in Michigan and moved to Wisconsin when he was five. He still lives there, in Houlton, with his wife, Cheri, and three children, with the oldest a new graduate of Hudson high school. Ray has a Masters in Education, is working on a Doctorate, and is assistant superintendent of SAHS, which he joined in 2003.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: Rick Robbins

PROGRAM

Speaker Kelly Jahner-Byrne, who Ray introduced, has been a sales, marketing, training and operations consultant for 18 years. She recently left the corporate world, is CEO of Kelly Enterprises LTD, had a baby at 40, has spoken at "a hundred" Rotary Clubs, is committed to developing "cutting-edge individuals and businesses," was Mrs. Minnesota in 2001, has led a successful statewide political election campaign, has written two books, and has grown her consumables company by 25% in the past two years. All that by age 43.

Her secret – "networking", which used to be called "relationship marketing". Her secret weapon – business cards, which she dates, writes notes on, including the event, and files away by subject area. "If you treat business cards like money, it will pay you," she told Sunrise members in a rapid-fire presentation. "Treat business cards like dollar bills." File them by year and they become an existing network. Other tips:

- Don't buy business cards made of slick paper – "you can't write on them." (She gets around that by carrying a felt pen.)
- When you receive a business card, "Take it with both hands, look the giver in the eye and say 'Thank You'."
- When you go to an event, "have your business brain turned on and you'll have your battle half licked."
- Ladies, when you introduce yourself, "use your first and last names. Men always remember last names."
- Belong to a networking organization.
- People do business with people they know, like and trust." Business is still done "belly to belly."

JOKE OF THE WEEK

A man watching a football match on TV kept switching channels back and forth from the football game to a raunchy movie featuring a lusty couple in bed.

"I don't know whether to watch them or the game," he said to his wife.

"For heaven's sake, watch them," his wife answered. "You already know how to play football!"
