Cork mentioned that this project has taken many months, the cost around $350,000, with their club, contractors and the city all pitching in. This field, with a surface which is designed for disabled people, can be run on, use of walkers, wheel chairs will be a real benefit to all the communities in the area.

Arba-Della is asking for one more member to join the two who have already volunteered to help in implementing the policy regarding proper training for people working on youth programs.

This weeks Service Above Self Awardee was Dean Tibbetts. Dean has been instrumental in getting sponsorship for many of our events along with his community service at the Courage Center. Congratulations Dean.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM

GETTING TO KNOW OUR MEMBERS

As part of a new initiative, the previous weeks host program to help us to better know our membership.

This week Orwin Carter talked about Janis Donnelly. Jersey Turnpike. A road that Orwin traveled many times. She is a graduate of Gettysburg College majoring in History and English. She taught high school in Bethesda and after 17 years retired. She has now started a new career provides a semi-biographical introduction of the host for this week's

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: Rick Robbins

Mark Lambert substituted for Rick this week. He expressed his pleasure of having Laura this month.

To get things started, he suggested that even though winter is coming we are having such beautiful weather that why would anyone want to leave Minnesota? Everyone who has purchased a ticket to get out of Minnesota this month should donate to the Foundation....it was amazing to hear how many and where....Savannah, Georgia, Florida, South Africa, Caribbean, Kenya etc... Good way to get more for the Foundation.

The alumni meeting discussing the Health Care Reform is tonight at Boutwells at 7 PM.

Paula announced that it was time again to buy goodies from her son Xander who is selling Scout Troop. She passed around a sign-up sheet.

Arba-Della won the drawing, and as she said, "2nd time in four years!"

them to support his Cub

PROGRAM

Janis introduced Karla Jenkins from the St. Croix Festival Theatre in St. Croix Falls. Karla is a retired teacher like Janis, and joined the Theatre initially as a volunteer. She became officially in charge of Marketing in 2008. She a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and since 1997 has been a resident of St. Croix Falls. She has also acted in plays at the Theatre.

Karla gave a Power Point presentation on the theatre. It had its' beginning with three people who wanted to start a theater in Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, it failed to materialize and they came to St. Croix Falls instead in 1990. They are celebrating their 20 year Anniv. There are very few professional theaters in small towns in Wisconsin, places like Spring Green, Door County and Bayfield to name a few. If you are interested to see truly professional theater without traveling to the cities and all of it's' traffic and parking problems, this is the place to go. They have 5 plays a year, are noted for their elaborate stage designs and lighting. They have a children's theater whom they offer discounts to with 4 plays per year. They have an excellent venue in a building that has a long history in St. Croix Falls. They are presently in the middle of renovating the building. Their website has much more information....Festival Theatre St. Croix Falls It is an excellent website.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

A woman was having a passionate affair with an inspector from a pest-control company. One afternoon they were carrying on in the bedroom together when her husband arrived home unexpectedly.

'Quick,' said the woman to the lover, 'into the closet!' She pushed him in the closet, stark naked.

The husband, however, became suspicious and after a search of the bedroom discovered the man in the closet.

'Who are you?' he asked him.

'I'm an inspector from Bugs-B-Gone,' said the exterminator.

'What are you doing in there?' the husband asked.

'I'm investigating a complaint about an infestation of moths,' the man replied.

'And where are your clothes?' asked the husband.

The man looked down at himself and said, 'Those little bastards!'
