SARGENTS AT ARMS: Bob Gray and Mel Sullivan:

Nothing this day...

GETTING TO KNOW OUR MEMBERS:

In order to get to know better our members, the previous weeks host provides a semi-biographical introduction of the host for this week's program.

Nothing this day..

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM:

Tim Trooien has the speaker for next week. It will be Monique Hammond, author of "What Did You Say?". It is a book about her hearing loss and how she copes.

PROGRAM:

Rick and Debbie Pierre welcomed our Club with a wonderful breakfast and great tour of their facility. Rick talked about how much technology and specifically the internet has changed their business. They started the business back in 1988 in their basement. Then they moved into River Heights Mall and then to their current location on Market Drive and they have been there for 12 years. Today, most of their orders are from sports teams through out the St. Croix Valley and surrounding communities. But the internet allows them to take orders from around the country. They employ over 25 people, including their children.

In addition to an informative tour of their production area, we got to watch Richelle Pierre (daughter) produced a Stillwater Sunrise Rotary t-shirt for each attending member.

Thank you to Georgene Gray for setting up this visit.

Joke of the Week

I was visiting my son last night when I asked if I could borrow a newspaper.

"This is the 21st century, he said. 'I don't waste money on newspapers. Here, you can borrow my iPad."

I can tell you this. That damn fly never knew what hit him.
