CLUB BUSINESS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Dave thanked Steve and all his helpers for a wonderful picnic. Ted Nesse won the Bolo Competition

Jon Stillman reported that we actually had 110 cases in June versus 91 last year primarily due to Kenya and Somalia. They are attacking the problem and appear to be having success.

Craig stated that the District Success Seminar will be in Alexandria on the 17th of August. He is going and would welcome riders to go with.

Cheryl and Paula reported on the International convention singling an organization started by a young man to help teenagers in Bangladesh. The young man from Canada named his organization WE?. Jane Goodall was there as well and very good.

We got thank you's from Lakeview for our donation of $1000, Family Means for $50 for the youth soccer team and $50 for the Community kitchen.

Dave did a short re-cap of last years highlights including the Halloween event, Re-emergence of STRIVE. $3000 in Community Assistance, top three in donations to Paul Harris, 4 international projects this year, and Fast for Hope leading the District again, Good socials including the river cruise and the falcon exhibits. This is not an inclusive list missing especially all the work we did with the school this year. There appears to be an East Metro cooperative project on the Horizon.

Then with the exchange of pins and gavel we welcomed Paula Williams as our new president.

Dave received gifts to make him stand out in his planned bicycle trip thru Utah. Paula talked about the new year with the theme "Engage Rotary, Change Lives." She is planning some changes like instead of an invocation each week, some weeks we will call on people to give there special moments in Rotary.

SERGEANTS AT ARMS: Bob Gray and Mel Sullivan:

Cheryl told a harrowing story of her trip to Spain and a side trip to Morocco. Lost luggage for 6 days, Jingle forgetting medicine and having to see a doctor in Spain, getting the wrong room in Lisbon and finding two people in bed etc...

Andy reported his son's family finally closed on their house and will be leaving in a month. after 10 months living with them.

Craig said that next years convention will be in Sidney.

Jon thanked Dave for a great year.

Paula forgot a lot this morning due to her husband badly spraining his ankle in a basketball game and spending the night tossing and turning until is banned to the couch.

Jack mentioned his son finally picked up his junk from his basement after being there for years.

Arba-Della congratulated Dave and Paula and mentioned that Family Means is celebrating 50 years this year.

Ned is celebrating 52 years of marriage.

Rich's fishing lodge in Canada burned to the ground but they are still going.

Steve thanked his committee for all the work on the Picnic.

GETTING TO KNOW OUR MEMBERS:

In order to better get to know our members, the previous week's host provides a semi-biographical introduction of the host for this week's program. We skipped it this week.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM:

On July 23, Tom Warth, author and Founder of Books for Africa will be hosted by Ken McGinley.

PROGRAM:

No Program this week.

Joke of the Week

The price of gas in France...

A thief in Paris planned to steal some paintings from the Louvre.

After careful planning, he got past security, stole the paintings, then made haste to his waiting van.

However, he was quickly captured only two blocks away when his van ran out of gas.

When asked how he could mastermind a perfect crime and then make such an obvious error, he replied, 'Monsieur, that is the reason I stole the paintings.'

I had no Monet

To buy Degas

To make the Van Gogh.'

See if you have De Gaulle to send this on to someone else who always enjoys laughs.

I sent it to you because I figured I had nothing Toulouse....
