CLUB BUSINESS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS: President Mel Sullivan

Barbara and Arba-Della are in Atlanta at the international convention. Craig and Jon are also there.

July 11 Mel is turning over the gavel and she hinted she had several presentations planned.

Jerry O'Connel is our new member, Jack will introduce in the future.

Please send your background and announcement to Mel for her directory.

We have until June 15th to make your donation to The Foundation in order for it to count towards Mel's year. We have already reached our goal.

SERGEANTS-AT-ARMS: Jennifer Giovinazzo and Mark Fisher

Rich Cummings just returned from Seattle where his car was broken into and valuables were stolen. Sad news.

Dan S. is happy to be back, will be here till September. He has the grandkids for the whole month.

Rick announced that E.S.R is having their golf tournament fundraiser on August 28th. They are looking for golfers and sponsors.

Wendy announced their daughter has graduated from Carlton College and has a job.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM:

Dan Schmid will introduce Mike Hensel, who will talk about Copper-Nickel Mining in Minnesota from another perspective then what has appeared in the papers.

GETTING TO KNOW OUR MEMBERS

Elizabeth Greiner-Quiett, where Greiner is her married name, joined our club in 2014. She is expert in Fiduciary Counseling, She has 2 children, Miranda and Charles, one a Viking fan and the other a Colts fan. She works with Shari C. who introduced her to Rotary. She met our speaker at St. Croix Catholic where Dr. McNulty is on the board.

PROGRAM

Katie McNulty comes from Traverse City, Michigan. She has been involved extensively with the issue of Water through her travels with her husband to Kenya and Lake Victoria, specifically Rusinger Island. There is a consensus coming together in support of a World Water organization and special day. This has also resulted in her getting personally involved with an organization called CAITHA. Very interesting talk.

WEEK'S JOKE

Okay....remember, this has to be told with a solid cokney accent!

A young British lad returns home from his vacation in the US and is attempting to describe the Great American Pastime to a group of ladies at the local flower club:

"It's a strange game called baseball and is played in a huge field. In one corner is a large dirt filled diamond shaped area and at each point of the diamond lies a little white pillow! The patrons call them First Pillow, Second Pillow, Third Pillow & Home Pillow?? In the center of the dirt diamond area on little hill stands one of the chaps holding a large white pellet. Out beyond the diamond are three separate meadow areas of grass. They are known as Left Meadow, Center Meadow and Right Meadow. Now as the contest ensues a chap emerges from some sort of cavern or hole in the ground, He is holding a willow in his hands and strides to home pillow and just stands there! Extraordinary! Now the chap on the little hill begins to hurl that pellet toward the chap at home pillow with the object to try and strike the willow he is holding.

So, he succeeds in striking the willow on his first attempt. The pellet zooms out into left meadow. Then the chap at home pillow drops his willow and runs to first pillow. Extraordinary! Now another chap emerges from the cave with a willow, goes over to home pillow again and the chap on the hill hurls the pellet and by Jove strikes the willow dead center once again. This chap now drops his willow and runs off to first pillow, while the chap already standing on first pillow runs to second pillow! Whew! So....once again a third chap emerges with a willow strides to home pillow while the hill chap once again hurls his pellet.....but misses the willow! Four times he hurls and misses the willow each time. Now the chap at home pillow drops his willow and walks to first pillow. The chap at first pillow walks to second pillow and the chap at second pillow walks to third pillow. Well, now.....there it seems you have it?!"

An old lady stands up and asks" "I don't quite understand! Why did the first two chaps run to first pillow, while the third merely walked?" "I didn't understand that myself. But there was another little chap in an ugly black suit standing behind home pillow the whole time, and he said something about that last chap having four balls! So, I imagine that slowed him up a bit!"
