

Seven Questions with an Rotary Club of Milwaukee Scholar

Rotary Club of Milwaukee Scholar, Kevin Simmons is a senior at Marian University of Wisconsin where he is majoring in Management Information Systems with a minor in Data Analytics. During Kevin's time in the Scholarship Program, he has been mentored by Rotarian Wendell Willis.

1. How do you relax?

I mostly relax by writing, working out, or gaming. When I write, I mostly write poetry which I love to perform when I can.

2. Who is a hero of yours and why?

My biggest hero is my mom, she has sacrificed so much for me and keeps a smile on her face. I want to be a man that she can be proud of.

3. Where do you want to visit someday?

I have always dreamed to visit Japan someday, it's one of my biggest goals to visit there some day. The culture in Japan has always interested me and I'm a big fan of trying new foods.

4. What is your favorite color?

My favorite colors are blue and black. I love blue because I think that I look good in it. I think that black has a hidden beauty that most people can't see.

5. What is one of your talents?

One of my talents is writing original poetry. I started my love for writing in high school and that never really left me. Writing is a way that I can reach the hearts of other people and learn their story in addition to exploring my own.

6. What songs are on your playlist right now?

My song playlist is all over the place, it can start off with rap but easily go to rock or dubstep in a heartbeat. But music keeps me very energetic.

7. What motivates you?

My biggest motivator is the thought of letting myself down. I promised myself that I would become a man that my mother and grandmother would be proud of.
