

Local kids were free this week, since we were using their school for the clinic. They really connected with many of our team members and were a huge help in loading and unloading the wagons with our clinic furniture and supplies, and with doing many other odd jobs in between.

Photo Stories from GMRP

Jan 23, 2026

Page 03

Our serious, hardworking medical team, fresh and ready for another day!

I received this photo late one afternoon with the message: "Send money . . . Medical team got put in the Guatemalan jail."