My first memory of a Christmas tree was when I was about 10 years old. I used to go to the store with my family to buy the tree.
I remember the tree was so tall and green. I also remember the smell of the tree. It was so good. I love Christmas trees.

Dear Rotary Club,

Thank you for the dictionaries and the pencils. I got an Orange one. Oh, and also thank you for showing us the biggest word in history. I have been trying so, so, so, so, so, hard on trying to figure it out but I can't!
You were right nobody ever really has.

Your friend
Zoey Moore.

This is the bike trail I know this not really a waterfall but I'm just being creative!

Dear Rotary club,
Thank You So much for the dictionary. I really appreciate you visiting us at Freedom Elementary, And thank you for coming in our classroom. And talking to us about it.
Thank for showing us the biggest word in the book to us. And giving us some pencils, stickers, taking a picture.

Sincerely,

M'Raye

Dear Rotary Club,

Thank you so much for the dictionary. I really appreciate you visiting us at Freedom Elementary. I loved the things you did for us. I loved the pencils. I loved the colors. I use the dictionary for words that I do not know how to spell in my reading groups. I loved the stickers that you gave us, that was smart. I hope you come back to Freedom Elementary again.

Dear Rotary Club,

I Thank you so much for the dictionary. NOW I can look up words.
And Thank you for the Pencil too.
I like to call it my lucky pencil. Because it just is lucky to me. And with the dictionary I learned Sign language and I use the multiplication chart, Thank you for showing us the the largest word in the world. Thank you for taking our picture.

Sincerely,

Frederick
