Dear Rotary club,

I thank you for the dictionary.
My name is Jade and I'm really happy that we got to take a picture with you. I really hope you a LOT. My friend is absent today so I don't think he will get to write to you but he enjoyed to just like me. Thank you that you got to tell us to look at the longest word in the book.

Sincerely,

Jade

Dear Rotary Club,

Hi my name is Anari. I like the dictionary you gave us. I use it for reading and writing. I have so much to tell you thank you for them. I love the pencil you gave us. I like the part where you showed us the biggest word on page 373. It had 1,909 and 267 amino acids. I liked when we took a picture. Thank you I like it when you give us the stickers.

Sincerely

Anari

english back. I love the words. I hope you come so much. Just to tell you I am using the pencil right know writing this letter. I got the orange one, it is so cool. I also use my dictionary at home to understand words. Do you know how to say the biggest english word because I do not? I also use my pencil at home for reading, writing, and math, and all sorts of things, I also like the stickers. You gave us for our dictionaries. I love the green spine it is so cool. Again, thank you so much for everything. Thank you for talking to us about things. I also like your guys name, Rotary club, that is so cool.
I like how you have club in it because you are a club that works together all the time. Rotary is also a really good word. I hope you read this.
