Canandaigua Lake Watershed Association

Jack Dailey and Steve Lewandowski of the Canandaigua Lake Watershed Association with Rotarian Eric Chapman

Today we were visited by Jack Dailey and Steve Lewandowski from the Canandaigua Lake Watershed Association. Brought to us by Eric Chapman, they came to discuss the mission of their organization, which is to preserve, protect and promote Canandaigua Lake and its watershed.

The Association was formed in 2010 from the merger of two lake advocacy groups. The group consists of around 500 dues-paying members, who strive to promote responsible development along the lakeshore, monitor water quality, and work with local governments and state agencies to preserve the lake and its assets.

One specific area of concern for the Watershed Association is development along the lakeshore. Most of the low lands along the shore have been built up, meaning new developments tend to go on wooded hillsides. The group works to encourage new developments to ensure that runoff patterns are not changed. When vegetation is cleared for these developments, the chance of sediment and runoff getting to the lake increases, which can affect water quality and impact the ecosystem.

Singing:

Our club was originally chartered April 17, 1950. In honor of that anniversary (and Easter!), we sang "Here Comes Pal-Mac Rotary" (to the tune of "Here Comes Peter Cottontail.")

Birthdays, Anniversaries:

- Jim Murray, 57
- Dave Pray, 61
- Andy Wahl, 42

Fines, Happy Bucks, Confessions:

- Pat VerPlank confessed to a wandering dinner badge.
- Jim Murray confessed to a wandering "ABC's of Rotary" book, which is apparently still wandering.
- Vicky gave a dollar for her guilty conscience; she forgot about the Board of Directors meeting last week.
- Eric Chapman spent 22 days in Aruba. He had the exempt button for March, so he got a reduced fine.
- Dave Read was happy to share the news that his son-in-law, Ted Kuppinger was promoted to Captain in the Rochester Fire Department, and that his alma mater won their championship game.
- Carol Bentley pitched in a happy buck, saying her son-in-law is safely home from Afghanistan.

- Bob Ike was happy to be able to spend the day with his daughter, Charlie.
- Pam told us that Bill had an unexpected angiogram, but happily no bad outcome; they found nothing wrong.
- Bill had a happy buck for that, too!

Notes and Updates for the Club:

- Auction items are needed for this month's Club Assembly (April 30). Please contact Joan if you are able to contribute an item.
- Saturday, April 26 from 10am – 2pm there will be a prescription drug take-back program. Prescription drugs can be dropped off at the Macedon Town Hall, Palmyra Police Department, and Wegman's Plaza in Newark.

Karen Breen of Wayne County Home Meal Service was on hand today to receive a donation from our club in the amount of $500. She told us that in the past year, some 36,000 meals were delivered to 300 clients. Volunteers are always needed and welcomed. She is also looking for some volunteers to help out in non-driving capacity. You can contact her at 946-5623.

Congratulations to Vicky Daly, winner of $8 in this week's 50/50 drawing.

Next meeting – April 23, noon at the American Legion in Palmyra.
