LAST WEEK: Our speaker last week was Buzz Roberts, M.D., who is VP of the Skaneateles Lake Association, Inc. (formerly the Tri-County Skaneateles Lake Pure Water Association, Inc.). He spoke about protecting and improving the water quality of Skaneateles Lake and its watershed, and provided an update on the milfoil project. He also encouraged all Rotarians to become members of the Association to help pay for the on-going milfoil eradication maintenance effort to keep our lake clean.

THIS WEEK: Board of Directors Meeting at 5:00PM at the Sherwood.

The speakers this week are John Adamski, President and George Farenthold, VP, of the Board of Trustees of the Finger Lake Museum, a project currently under development at the Keuka Lake State Park. The Museum recently received a $2.3 million grant from NYS for the organization's Branchport, NY Campus. The grand opening for the Museum is tentatively scheduled for 2014/2015.

NEXT WEEK: Our speaker next week is Rich Roche, Director of Transportation for Global Logistics. His talk will be about containerization and how freight moves to and from Central New York.

Rich Roche is a graduate of the United States Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, NY, where he received a Bachelor of Science in Nautical Science and Marine Transportation. Rich held licenses as a Chief Mate upon Oceans, First Class Pilot on Upper Bay of New York Harbor, and Master of Freight and Towing Vessels up to 1600 gross tons. His career in the logistics industry has shaped him to be an expert in relationship building, carrier contracting, and agent work. In 2001, he started Diplomat Global Logistics, a freight forwarding company which was sold to Mohawk Global Logistics in 2009. Rich currently serves as Chairman of the NVOCC Committee for the NCBFAA. Today, Rich is the Director of International Transportation at Mohawk Global Logistics.
