Skaneateles Rotarians & friends {Bootleggers} packed over a pallet load (28 cartons) of children, world history, biography and reference gently used books from the unsold books following the Annual Skaneateles Library Book Sale. Speaker - Mariah McCarron opened her presentation by thanking Rotary for giving her the opportunity to go to Finland as a Rotary Exchange Student two years ago. While in Finland Mariah stayed with three Finnish host families in three different areas of Finland. This afforded Mariah the opportunity to fully discover Finland's majestic beauty. Mariah briefly described world renown Finnish education system. Finland's educational process is diametrically the opposite in many ways from the US's educational system. Students are not tested. Classes are short & they are structured differently than our classes. During her stay in Finland Mariah traveled throughout this beautiful country of lakes & forests. Mariah also visited Russia & on a nineteen day trip to Europe visited nine countries. Mariah responded to many questions from our members & in closing again expressed how grateful she is to Rotary for making her ten month long visit to Finland possible.

Guests : Donna McCarron [Mariah's mother] & Mariah McCarron, presenter

Our 50/50 winner - the winning draw was Kathy Crelot
