LAST WEEK: Frank De Rosa, a CPA and certified management consultant spoke about money matters on a personal, business and governmental level. For young people still trying to determine a career path he suggested looking at the Occupational Outlook Handbook. This is published once a year by the federal government and is available free on line. Any person considering relocating to further a career objective he suggested the Robert Half Salary Guide. This guide will compare salaries in giving cities and regions across the country as well as the cost of living differences. For those entrepreneurs contemplating selling, buying, or just curious about the approximate value of their business he recommended the BIZ COMPS Business Sale Statistics provides transaction information on business sales in the US broken down by industry. Frank specializes in business risk management and truly enjoys working with area businessmen and women guiding them through to tumultuous landscape of running a business. He has also advised municipalities on how to handle the risk and plan for future operational expenses.

THIS WEEK: Holly and Jim Gregg from the Committee to Preserve the Character of Skaneateles (CPCS) will be the guess speakers.
