LAST WEEK: Joyce Barnett and Helen Nolan from the Skaneateles Garden Club treated the members on hand to a lovely slide show of some of the most beautiful gardens here in our lovely town. The Garden Club was founded in 1931 and has been responsible for some of our prettiest tree-scapes that have won awards for our community. The tree committee will be working with the town and village to landscape the "Western Gateway." This is a project that we, as Rotarians, should get involved in as a community service project. Joyce also mentioned how much work the garden Club does for the Skaneateles Library and that there is an ongoing project there.

Cheryl Silvestrini pulled the queen from the deck of cards and won over $150 bucks in the 50/50. Once again, Seb served as fine master and collected over fifty dollars.

THIS WEEK: Two RYLA student will speak on RYLA activities - Lori Rulman

NEXT WEEK: Lake House Pub & Board Meeting @ 5:00 PM

BENEFIT: On October 24, 2012 there will be a benefit for baby Easton. If you have not heard about this child, he was born without skin on his arms and legs. The Fundraiser will be held in the Weedsport High School Auditorium and there will be a show by Jack Hirsh. Hirsh is a comedian-hypnotist. The show will be hosted by Christopher Blessing who also will be performing some of his favorite songs. Baby Easton is suffering from Epidermolysis Bullosa, a disease that afflicts 1/50,000 newborns. Tickets are only $15. See Bill Blessing if you wish to attend and help out this worthy cause.

Skaneateles Rotarians will be Hosting our Youth Exchange Students to this Friday's October 5th Syracuse Football Game vs Pittsburg.

Syracuse University Athletics and the Syracuse Inner City Rotary Club invite all International Rotary District 7150 members, family, and friends to the 1st Annual Central New York Rotary Night with Syracuse Athletics Football on Friday, October 5th at 7pm in the Carrier Dome. The goal of the event is to bring together all of the Clubs in the District for an evening of fun, fellowship, and football. The game will be played against Big East rival Pittsburgh in the Orange's Big East Opener, and will be televised nationwide on ESPN. In what could be Syracuse University's last football season in the Big East, this is the game you don't want to miss!
