Board Meeting at 5:00 p.m. at the Sherwood.

LAST WEEK: Mathew Payne and Kelly Valente two students from Skaneateles High School came to the meeting talked about their experience with RYLA. Both Matt and Kelly said that they appreciated the leadership training and said that they would be able to but these skills to use. Kelly talked about how active she is with the Interact club and Matt mentioned the Haunted Hallways project they do for Halloween.

Ty Chang and Ward Vuillemot will be collecting books and are looking for volunteers to help on 11-11-12 and 12-3-12 to pick up books. The Books for the World effort that Ward has started has shipped multiple cantainer loads of books to the far corners of the wolrd. This collection is focusing on books for children k-6. This a multi-club effort and the Lions are lending a hand as well.

Dan Roche won the 50/50 but we did not have back to back winners on the big prize. Seb Bentivegna got the week off and we had no fine master. We all look forward to the return of the "Fine Master."

THIS WEEK: This weeks meeting will be held at the Sherwood at the usual time but, the speaker will be informing us all about the new Lake House Pub and after the meeting we will adjourn to the pub for some refreshment.

NEXT WEEK: Next week Rev. Blessed Sikhosana will speak aon the Zimbabwe Water and Sanitation Project.

BENEFIT: On October 24, 2012 there will be a benefit for baby Easton. If you have not heard about this child, he was born without skin on his arms and legs. The Fundraiser will be held in the Weedsport High School Auditorium and there will be a show by Jack Hirsh. Hirsh is a comedian-hypnotist. The show will be hosted by Christopher Blessing who also will be performing some of his favorite songs. Baby Easton is suffering from Epidermlysis Bullosa, a disease that afflicts 1/50,000 newborns. Tickets are only $15. See Bill Blessing if you wish to attend and help out this worthy cause.
