MEMBERSHIP NIGHT - June 19 - We'd like to encourage members to bring prospective members. We will be presenting a program that will focus on encouraging the recruitment and importance of including the younger generation and steps we are taking to improve our presence on the web and use of social media. Doug Rutan

PANCAKE TICKET SALES COMMITMENTS - The full listing of the TOPS Pancake ticket sales commitments are listing on the website. Check the Site Pages "Pancake Tickets Sales" on left side of the home page. Link to the website is: <http://skaneatelesrotary.com/> You do not need to sign-in to the Member Area to view the listing. Additionally, you will find this coming weekend's listing below in this newsletter.

DISTRICT MATCHING

GRANT - This spring the Skaneateles Rotary Club obtained a RF District Matching Grant for $5,000 to help Skaneateles refurbish & update three baseball fields in Austin Park. Recently club president, Bill Conole, presented a check for $5,080, to retired Marine Colonel Rob Gladjo for this project. Rob Gladjo is coordinating this

$67,000 refurbishment project. According to Rob the objective of this project is build &to continue the strong tradition of pride, sportsmanship & dedication in our young boys & girls. The Skaneateles Rotary Club with their Rotary Foundation Grant is helping to make sure this notable objective is achieved. Rob Gadjo said this Foundation money will be used for the baseball fields new clay & bases. Thanks to Rotary this project will benefit hundreds of young people in the coming years. by, Prez Bill

NEXT WEEK: Robin Jowaisas - Pancake Breakfast Organizational Meeting - Board of Directors - 5 PM

FUTURE SPEAKERS & EVENTS: See listing below

LAST WEEK: Fr Peter Major presented on his life as a missionary priest in New Guinea & Africa. Father Peter was born & brought up in Skaneateles. As a young man Father Peter said he heard voices from the "deep waters". Again, as a student in Le Moyne Father Peter heard voices from "deep water". This is how Father Peter described his calling to the priesthood & to his life of service to people in New Guinea & Africa. For more than 30 years Father Peter served as a missionary priest in South Sudan where he pastured & served the Sudanese people. Father Peter related that when oil was discovered in Sudan it turned out to be almost a curse rather than a blessing. Driven by extreme greed some elements of the Sudanese became almost diabolical. A year after Father Peter retired these elements fomented a catastrophic civil in South Sudan. In heart wrenching terms Father Peter described his recent trip to his war torn country. In spite of the widespread devastation Father Peter is hopeful that peace will again return to Sudan. Father Peter's presentation is a vivid reminder of how fortunate we are live in the United States in Skaneateles. ... Prez Bill Conole
