LAST WEEK: Rob Gadjo, a former Marine Aviator, spoke on the Refurbishment of the Austin Park Baseball Fields. With their heavy utilization over the years, these fields now are in need of major repairs & upgrades. Rob explained that the objective of this refurbishment is to build & continue the strong tradition of pride, sportsmanship & dedication. With it's heavy utilization over the past decades, Austin's baseball diamonds are in need of major repairs. Thanks to a Rotary Grant our club contributed more than $5,000 to this $67,000 refurbishment. Rob also described the summer youth fitness camp he runs for the young boys & girls of Skaneateles. This camp is called "PRIDE" & the camp's objective is to build our young people's self esteem through improved fitness & health.
