LAST WEEK: by .... Prez., Bill Conole

"Beyond the Underground - Aunt Harriet - Moses Of Her People" - Ms Joyce Stokes Jones & her daughter Michele Jones Galvin presented on the book they recently wrote "Beyond the Underground Aunt Harriet Moses of Her People" Ms Jones & Me Galvin are great & great, great nieces of the famed Harriet Tubman. Ms Joyce Stokes Jones is an Auburn native & graduated from Auburn High School in 1948. Their book poignantly tells the story of Harriet Tubman's colorful life. With great faith, courage & ingenuity, Harriet Tubman guided more than 300 enslaved women, children & men to freedom through the network of safe homes known as the Underground Railroad & as Harriet proudly proclaimed "never lost a passenger". During the Civil War Tubman's war service ranged from spy, armed scout, nurse & cook. After the Civil War Tubman moved to Auburn where she set up what became the "Harriet Tubman Home for the Aged". Harriet Tubman often said "there is no greater virtue than being of service to others." After a long life of continuous sacrifice & service Harriet Tubman died in Auburn at the age of 92.
