This Week's Program

Submitted by Travis Rabbers, Programs Chair

Kevin Marken has been the On Point for College Utica Program Director since 2013, helping 2000 lower income inner city, refugee, immigrant, homeless, foster care and other youth with college access, college success and jobs. Prior to that, he was Director of Marketing and Development at the Mohawk Valley Resource Center for Refugees, as well as Director of Institutional Advancement at the Stanley Center for the Arts, where he was responsible for raising the 23 million dollars to expand and restore the Stanley. Kevin enjoys helping others as a volunteer, board member, committee member and on his own in his spare time. Kevin is the Founding President of the Utica Collegiate Access Network (UCAN) focusing on underserved populations. He is also the Founding President of the Oneida County Historians Association and Founding Co-Chair of the Oneida County Freedom Trail Commission.
