Rotary This Week!

Utica Rotarians on the slopes

Rotarians and friends hit the slopes Jan. 23 during the 4th annual Utica

This week's program is on cybersecurity

Joe Chevrette, chief technology officer at Inizio Technology Solutions, will address the club on Thursday, Jan. 30. The meeting starts at noon in the Mid-York Library at 1600 Lincoln Ave., Utica.

Joe will discuss the current cyber threat landscape and what businesses can do to help protect themselves.

Joe has over 15 years of enterprise technology and security experience in various industries and holds a master's degree in technology management and a bachelor's in business administration.

Joe has also received several awards such as the "40 under 40" award and the Business Executive of the Year award.
