Waste Authority's recycling coordinator to address club

This week's program speaker is Eileen Brinck, recycling coordinator for Oneida-Herkimer Solid Waste Authority. The meeting gets underway at noon, Thursday, Sept. 5, at Mid-York Library, 1600 Lincoln Ave., Utica.

"I started working for the Authority in January of 2022 after completing my master's degree capstone project with the Authority," she notes.

Winning team

Here are the winners from our Golf Outing held Aug. 25 at Hidden Valley in Whitesboro to benefit Feed Our Vets: (L-R) Mark Sokolowski, Paul Colburn, Steve Heitz and Charlie Batson. "They shot a sizzling 59 which was 12-under for the day," Golf Chair Jerry Kraus noted. "Thank you to all the golfers and Rotary helpers who made this such a great event."

Deadline for next newsletter (9/9) is Saturday, Sept. 7 at 3 p.m.; submit to news@uticarotaryclub.org.

She received her master's degree in environmental studies and sustainability from Unity Environmental University in 2021 after graduating from SUNY College of Environmental Science and Forestry in 2020 with a bachelor's degree in environmental studies, with a concentration in environmental communications and a minor in environmental writing.

She adds: "I grew up and went to school in Herkimer and I now live in New Hartford. I have two cats and outside of work I enjoy activities like cycling, crafting and gaming."

Monthly social event
