President Donny presides over our meeting , but due to circumstances beyond his control , our speaker had to reschedule. We had a full plate of things to discuss and it all worked out well.

We recognize Angie with an Horary Rotarian Certificate, Doug Mince our newest Rotarian gave us a little incite into his background and His company.

Then we had a talk from Alex on the status of Carols by Cadel Light., still needs help selling those tickets , tell your friends about it.

We also inducted Scott Miller a transferring Rotarian, from Oster Harbor Virginia Rotary Club.

The Four Way Test

Of the things

We think say or do

- 1. Is it the truth?
- 2. Is it fair to all concerned?
- 3. Will it build goodwill and better Friendships?
- 4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
- 5. Will it be FUN?

Welcome to our newest member

Welcome Scott Miller.

Scott transferred from Oyster Point Rotary Club of Virginia to The Villages Noon Club , after giving us a try as a snowbird, He finally made it official, for years we thought he was a Noon'er. Scott has participated in many projects already.

He is often seen at the Habitat for Humanity Projects with brush in hand.

The Pot Grows and the cards diminish, so if you want to miss a meeting, go ahead, that gives the rest of us a better chance to win.

There are only 44 cards on the table that is all that is left between you and the pot, as John draws the wrong card , the Joker is waiting for you to start over again next week.

Over $217.00 up for grabs

Congratulations to Angie Hughes, as we thank her for all her work on behalf of the Rotary Noon Club and present her with an “Horary Rotarian “ Certificate.

Angie works for Tracy and when Tracy says that she take care of it , Angie sees that it gets done.

Christmas Is Coming

It's time to remember those who treat us so well.

Linda Pisani, our server will be receiving a Christmas Bonus from our club.

Starting November 21st , there will be a basket on Kriss's table with a red bow. You may place your personal gift in the basket and we will see to it that it gets passed on when we present our Club thanks, to Linda.

Linda goes above and beyond to help each of us, throughout the year. Now is the time of year to say thank you.

Rotary International honors six champions of peace at the United Nations on 11 November.

By Geoff Johnson

On the 99th anniversary of the end of World War I, more than 1,200 people gathered in Geneva, Switzerland, for Rotary Day at the United Nations.

Representing 87 countries, they convened on Saturday, 11 November, at the Palais des Nations, originally the home of the League of Nations, and dedicated themselves to the theme introduced by Rotary President Ian H. S. Riseley: “Peace: Making a Difference.”

“The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace have always been among Rotary’s primary goals,” said Riseley. “It is past time for all of us to recognize the potential of all of our Rotary service to build peace, and approach that service with peacebuilding in mind.”

For the first time in its 13-year history, Rotary Day at the UN was held outside of New York.

Rotary Day concluded Geneva Peace Week, during which John Hewko, general secretary of Rotary International, noted the “close and longstanding ties between Rotary and the UN in (their) mutual pursuit of peace and international understanding.”

Rotary members “can transform a concept like peace to a reality through service,” said Ed Futa, dean of the Rotary Representatives to the United Nations. “Peace needs to be lived rather than preached.”

During a Rotary Day highlight, Hewko introduced Rotary’s 2017 People of Action: Champions of Peace. He praised them as “an embodiment of the range and impact of our organization’s work,” and saluted them for providing “a roadmap for what more peaceful, resilient societies look like.”

Rotary honored six individuals, who each made brief remarks.
