

Zoom Screen Share Information

Best practice – have only the necessary screens / windows / applications open.

Select the Share Screen Icon (it will be with your other controls like chat – may not look exactly like this)

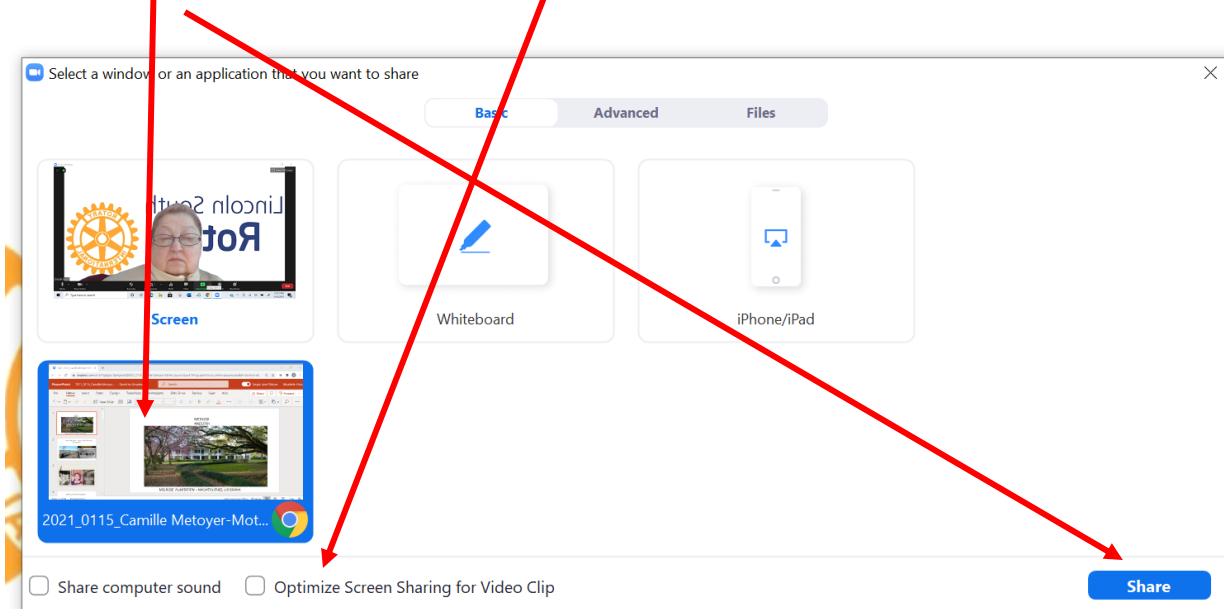

The screens / windows / applications that you have open will appear here.

Click to select the one you want to share.

If any audio is needed, first click the Optimize button.

Then select Share.

Voila!

