PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Hi Lincoln South Rotarians. Hope you are enjoying the weekend.

I am reflecting on Friday and thinking about what a great year Tracey McLain had and what a nice job she did describing last years activities and accomplishments. We truly have a special club, not because we have something inherently different but because we consistently "rise to the challenge". Our success as a club is due to our members who seem to enjoy helping others while having a bit of fun at the same time. Why not. :))

I have been browsing the District 5650 and Rotary International websites and I think we will have a banner year for Rotary. I like the theme very much; "Building Communities, Bridging Continents". I also like incoming Rotary International President Ray Klinginsmith's Cowboy Logic. He asks us to 1) take pride in our work, 2) talk less and say more, 3) do what has to be done, and 4) remember that some things just aren't for sale.

I hope as this new year unfolds we can each take our involvement a step higher and remember that the world needs us. Rotary can make a difference in our local and world communities.

Tom

Friday was the annual Lincoln South Rotary changing of the guard. Outgoing President Tracey McLain presented the year in review which chronicled all of the Lincoln South activities and awards for the 2009/2010 Rotary year.

Lincoln South was again very active during the year with projects and fundraisers such as the Mini Golf Course Project, Youth Exchange, Nut Sales, Holiday Party, Salvation Army Bell ringing, Daffodil Days, End Polio Now, Lincoln South Foundation Chili Feed Fundraiser, Scholarships and the Golf Outing just to name a few.

Lincoln South obtained 9 net new members and had 100% existing member renewals to reach our goal of 50 members. Lincoln South was the #1 club in the district and received the Presidential Citation, both of which require a lot of participation from the club.

dent Sandy Taylor for laying the groundwork in the prior year for Tracey to step in as president.

Joe Roberts was recognized as Outstanding Foundation Chair for his work on the Foundation Drive which resulted in 100% of the club members giving at least $100.

Nicki Klein was given a Distinguished Service Award to as a special recognition for her dedication to Lincoln South which is above and beyond that of any other member of the club.

Bryan Block was recognized as Rotarian of the Year for his outstanding results as membership chair. Bryan was key in helping Lincoln South reach its goal of 50 members.
