

President's Message

One month gone and it is August already. How time moves so fast. Just the other day we received the mantle, figured out how to start the year and today one month is no more.

We look at the past month as thus but ultimately we should be reflecting on what we did, both as individuals and club in serving humanity. Simple questions like;- Did I attend all club activities?, Did I visit another club?, Did I tell a non-Rotarian about Rotary?, Did I make a contribution to any humanitarian cause?, Did I live my life in accordance with the 4 way test?, Did my professional life adhere to the object of Rotary?, etc. Answers to these and many more would constitute your Rotary balance sheet for the month ended 31 July 2016. As a club, we had a mouthful of activities and am glad to mention that we achieved all that we set out to do. We collected and remitted dues, held interesting fellowships, individuals visited other clubs, hosted the Vocational Training Team (VTT), hosted several at the movie night, celebrated anniversaries, several committees held consultation meetings, held a Board meeting and most importantly hosted a very successful 5 aside.

The month of August has been set aside as a membership and extension month. As RCK, our major focus will be membership retention and inviting more potential persons to learn about Rotary. Plans are underway, in conjunction with the Rotary club of Kampala South, to resume our membership development and recruitment drive which has been in hibernation. Once this is finalized, all concerned will be informed.

We shall hold a club assembly to address several teething club issues but the highlight will be to host our District Governor Jayesh Asher on the 24th of August 2016. The board is working on all the issues on his list to ensure the opportunity is not passed. We request that we do everything within our means to host the DG.

Let us all embrace the membership month with enthusiasm to serve humanity with pride and love.

3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Object of Rotary

The Object Of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

RI President's Message, August 2017

JOHN F. GERM
PRESIDENT 2016-17

Forty years ago, a man named George Campbell, the owner of the company I worked for, invited me to join Rotary. Back then, that was a common practice in the United States. Your boss invited you to join Rotary because he thought it would be good for business and good for the community, and you said yes. It's not surprising that our membership surged during that period.

George warned me not to use Rotary as an excuse to slack off at work. Even so, I always had time to attend lunch meetings and serve on committees. I never had to worry that taking a long lunch once a week would hurt my advancement, or what my boss would think about the occasional Rotary phone call at work.

Today, things are different. Companies are less generous about time, and not every manager looks favorably on community service. It's hard to enjoy a Rotary meeting when you've got emails piling up on your phone. It's harder than ever to balance work with Rotary – and the model that gave us so much growth a few decades ago is part of what's holding back our growth now.

That's why the recent Council on Legislation adopted some innovative measures that allow clubs to vary their meeting times and expand their pool of prospective members. Clubs have more flexibility now to respond to the needs of their members and to clear away as many barriers to membership as they can. But there's one barrier to membership that only you can remove, one thing that every prospective member needs to become a Rotarian: an invitation to join a Rotary club.

Whenever I tell a group of Rotarians that we need more willing hands, more caring hearts, and more bright minds to move our work forward, everyone applauds. But those hands, hearts, and minds won't magically appear in our clubs. We have to ask them to join. And an invitation to Rotary is something that only you can give. An invitation is a gift. It's saying to someone, "I think you have the skills, the talent, and the character to make our community better, and I want you to join me in doing that."

I'm the president of Rotary International, but the only club I can invite someone to join is the Rotary Club of Chattanooga, Tenn. I can't make your club or your community stronger. Only you can do that – by inviting the qualified people you know to join you in Rotary Serving Humanity.

The Rotary Cub of Kiwatule Continues to 'Innovate' 'Ring - fencing' it's Brand of 5 A side for keeps!

enjoyed it and can't wait to take part again . Thank you Rotary Club of Kiwat-

with their fancy support, and a good balance between having a good

August Is Rotary Membership and Extension Month

Did you know August is Rotary Membership and Extension Month? Here are some ideas on membership building from rotary.org.

All Rotarians are ambassadors of Rotary and their clubs. This is especially relevant during Membership and Extension Month in August, when the focus is on building strong, vibrant clubs by inviting prospective members to join Rotary. Interested in growing your club but not sure how to get started? Here's an easy three-step plan to bring to your next club meeting.

1. Start with Rotary Basics

The colorful Rotary Basics guide (published in the August issue of The Rotarian and Rotary regional magazines) gives an overview of what Rotary clubs do. Order copies from shop.rotary.org for members to share with prospective Rotarians and club guests. Include your club's contact information with the guide or direct prospective members to www.rotary.org/join, which includes a link to the Prospective Member Form.

2. Handle prospective-member inquiries

Club presidents receive inquiries about membership either directly from candidates or via Prospective Member or Rotarian Referral forms forwarded from Rotary International. As always, invitations for membership are at the discretion of your club. Consider creating a brochure or elevator speech to provide an overview of your club. If you develop a standard welcome e-mail to initiate correspondence with prospective members, include:

- Welcome and thank-you to candidate for his/her interest in Rotary
- Overview of the club, including a brief outline of Rotary's mission and humanitarian goals, a recent club/district service project, and typical club/district activities
- Meeting information, including the name, meeting time, and location
- Additional resources, including links to club/district websites or Rotary publications
- Follow-up information about the club's next steps in the membership process

3. Send prospective member kits

Follow up your welcome letter with the Prospective Member Information Kit (423), which provides basic information about RI, The Rotary Foundation, and the responsibilities of club membership. Have a club leader contact the prospective member to ensure they've received the kit and to answer any questions about Rotary membership.

Humour

Zuzeka was one of those UGLY women, so ugly it hurt; she had never had a boyfriend. So she went to a psychic for help.

Honey! - said the psychic. You will not have luck in love in this life. But after death, you will be a much desired woman and all men will fall at your feet. Zuzeka left very happy and so excited, as she went over a bridge she thought: "the sooner I die, the sooner my next life begins" She decided to jump off the bridge right away. But, incredibly Zuzeka didn't die!

She fell on the back of a truck full of bananas, she lost her senses and fainted.

As soon as she recovered, still drowsy and not being able to see very well, and not knowing where she was, she started touching her surroundings, feeling all the bananas she mumbled with a huge smile on her face and said:

"GENTLEMEN, GENTLEMEN, PLEASE! ONE AT A TIME..."

Guy : Doctor, my girlfriend is pregnant but I always use protection! How come its possible?

Doctor : Let me tell you a story. There was once a hunter who always carries a gun wherever he goes. One day, he took his umbrella instead of his gun and went out. A lion suddenly jumped in front of him. In order to scare the lion, the hunter used the umbrella like a gun and shot the lion. The lion died!

Boy : Nonsense!! Someone else must've shot the lion.

Doctor : Glad you understood the story!
