

Maria Kouppas
President 2016-17

Volume 82, Issue 34

March 28th 2017

This week there was no lunch meeting due to the members involvement in the Art Show, a record crowd attended the Art Show jointly organised by the Rotary Clubs of Essendon & Keilor East.

Over 200 paintings from various artists were presented at this art show and some were by very young Australian Artists of a very high standard.

Several members of both the Rotary Clubs gave of their time to help in the preparation and running of the show, there were school bands from St Bernard's College as well as Ava Maria, the girls singing was just fantastic and entertained the large crowd present.

Our member Jenni Mann's painting exhibited at the Art Show (should have won the first prize!)

“Rotary provides the opportunity, that together we can change things.”

Kelly Abfalter - RC Essendon

13th April BBQ helpers needed, Aaron Leask and his Real Estate Company are organising an Easter egg hunt at the Maribyrnong Park Golf Club, RCE to assist on the day to cook and sell sausages, 230 children are already registered together with parents. Time 2.30pm to 4.30pm
