- (b) Hybrid Members commit to maintain virtually attend at least 50% through virtual meetings or make ups of the Club meetings and join and participate as a member of a committee.

Honorary Membership: In cases where a person of good character and good reputation has demonstrated significant community impact through individual Service Above Self and practices the Four-Way Test so as to be a worthy representative of the Rotary Club of York, provided:

- (a) The service has been continuous for at least 20 years and worthy of representing the ideals of Rotary and the Rotary Club of York.
- (b) The service and reputation results from service above and beyond the expected level of ordinary service.
- (c) Elected officials are excluded until one year after they have completed their term of office.
- (d) Honorary members are to be encouraged to become Active members.

Any of the above active, hybrid, and honorary membership criteria may be waived after review by the membership committee and approval by the Board of Directors.

Member Proposal Process:

Potential candidates for membership will be presented (using the Membership Proposal Form) by the sponsoring member to the Membership Committee for consideration. Upon review of the candidate's background, experience, and community or other service, as well as any potential duplication of current members' backgrounds or affiliations, the committee will determine the candidate's eligibility and forward their decision to the Board for action on their recommendation. After Board approval, the Permission to Publish form will be sent to the proposer for signature by proposed members. After name has been published and no written objections received, the Application and Bio forms will be sent to proposer for new member to complete and return with $300 Membership fee (if applicable). New member is then scheduled for induction into the club.

In addition to the above, for Honorary Membership, the committee will determine the candidate's eligibility and forward their decision to the Past Presidents Committee for consideration. The Past President's Committee will forward their decision to the Board for action on their recommendation.
