APPLICATION FOR JURYING for ARTISTS, ARTISANS & CRAFTERS

Please check our website for further information, contracts & arrival instructions

Thank you for expressing interest in being an exhibitor in the Rotary Club of North Penn's Annual Lansdale Day & Arts Festival, which is co-managed by Stephanie L. Seidner, who has 30+ years experience in show management.* Professional fine artists, artisans and crafters are exhibited in this showcase. Some select fine artists, artisans and crafters participate in the show by special invitation. Their displays or exhibits have been viewed at other quality and select shows and often these participants are featured in special articles in publications highlighting their field of expertise.

New fine artists, artisans and crafters are selected to participate in the show based on the following:

- ❖ Originality of work
- ❖ Quality of work
- ❖ Variety of work (overall balance in display)
- ❖ Quality of exhibit (backdrop and display are important)
- ❖ Professionalism, friendliness and congeniality of exhibitor
- ❖ How work fits into look and style of show

Applications for jurying can be completed by appointment or by sending the following:

1. At least 5 descriptive JPEG's (preferred), CD's, slides or photos, showing quality and range of work plus exhibit or display\
2. Name, company name, address, phone (home, cell and work), e-mail address, fax, web site address, medium and description of work and price range
3. List of other shows where work has been/can be seen
4. Biographical background, including education, brochures, awards, publications, where work has been featured
5. SASE for return of CD's, slides or photos.

Occasionally, certain applicants will be contacted for permission to duplicate and use images from JEE-G's, CD's, slides or photos for use in future press releases.
