1. Friendship - In an increasingly complex world, Rotary provides one of the most basic human needs: the need for friends and fellowship. It is one of the two reasons why Rotary began in 1905.
2. Business Development – The second original reason for Rotary’s beginning. Everyone needs to network. Rotary consist of a cross section of every business community. Its members come from all walks of life. Rotarians help one another, and collectively help others.
3. Personal Growth and Development – Membership in Rotary continues one’s growth and education in human relations and personal development.
4. Leadership Development / Executive Skills – Rotary in an organization of leaders and successful people. Serving in Rotary positions is like a college education in Leadership: Learning how to motivate, influence and lead leaders, the opportunity to serve on committees or be on the Board of Directors.
5. Citizenship in the Community – Membership in a Rotary club makes one a better community citizen. The average Rotary club consists of the most active citizens of any community.
6. Continuing Education – Each week at Rotary there is a program designed to keep one informed as to what is going on in the community, nation and world... different speakers, different topics.
7. Fun – Rotary is fun... a lot of fun. Each meeting is fun. The club projects are fun. Social activities are fun, and the service is fun.
8. Public Speaking Skills – Many individuals who joined Rotary were afraid to speak in public. Rotary develops confidence, skills in public communication and opportunity.
9. Citizenship in the World – Every Rotarian wears a pin that says “Rotary International” and, every Rotarian is welcome... even encouraged to attend the 31,000 clubs in the 166 nations and geographical regions. There are few places on the globe which do not have a Rotary club. Instant friends in both one’s own community and in the world community.
10. The Development of Ethics – Rotarians practice a 4-Way Test which governs one’s ethical standards. Rotarians are expected to be ethical in business and personal relationships.
