Program: Classification Talk: Hemant “Hamee” Deshpande

New member Hamee thanked the club for the opportunity to be a member, the warm welcome, and especially for his “older brother” Phil.

Hamee is single, has one son in India who is completing his studies in computer programming, then will join Hamee in the U.S.

Hamee was born and raised in India in a community about three hours from Bombay. In his first job he earned $10/month. He took classes in computer languages and eventually found work in that field with an Indian company. Ultimately he became an expert in JDE which led to a job offer in the U.S. He has worked at Wheelabrator in Hampton previously.

Now Hamee is a Project Manager at his company. He is a JDE consultant, programmer and all-around expert, a “hard-core” programmer who supervises others and works on a wide range of jobs and projects. He travels internationally in his work. Hamee especially thanked Marion for encouraging him to do this talk.

When questioned Hamee said his hobby is computer programming. The coolest place he has been is St. Martin; he was most recently in Trinidad. His biggest adjustment to life in the U.S. has been related to cultural issues. What he misses most is Indian food.

ROTARY'S 4-WAY TEST of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL & BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

- The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.
