Program: Program: Scott Linscott - Donate Life!

A father to three and grandfather of four, Scott Linscott purposely avoided the confines of the podium as he pranced around the room speaking with passion about a subject close to his heart and liver. In 2012 he received the gift of life - a partial liver - donated from his son. In a touching video Scott and his son lift up their shirts to display matching scars from incisions to replace Scott's diseased liver with 60% of the his son's liver. (Livers regenerate fully over time). Eight years later Scott is still smiling and grateful. He is also asking for something from Rotarians.

As a Rotarian himself, Scott said he is familiar with asks at Rotary meetings. "Speakers are usually asking for money, for man hours or some form of support...all I'm asking for is your organs."

He noted, "One organ donor can save up to eight lives." How can you donate? Check the box to donate on your driver's license, sign up at donatelife.net, organdonor.gov or registerme.org.

Tell you family!!!! Scott emphasized the need to tell your family your wishes to donate your organs. Even if you sign up, a family member may not agree at a vital time and the hospital will side with the family member's wishes. Tell your family and donate life! ROTARY'S 4-WAY TEST of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL & BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

- The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.
