PRESENTATION- Literacy Promotion Contest for Rotary Clubs

Our club's work on the Title One Traveling Tales Van was one of four international projects to receive a $250 award for "Excellence in Promoting Literacy." Carolyn Johnson presented the award to Marion C., Dave D. and Ron R.

FOUNDATION MINUTE - Jim M. noted the third best club in the district averaged $312 per member. He believes we could push them out of that spot next year.

PROGRAM - HOPE CONNECTS THE WORLD – Cheryl Saint Amand

Rotary has had a float in the Rose Bowl Parade for the last 41 years

- Floats have to be decorated with organic material
- Purpose – extensive publicity for Rotary
- Organized by a separate organization from Rotary itself
- Floats all put into a park and people may pay to visit floats close-up
- Roses start coming in three days ahead, each one with a water container, have to be put in precisely with no spaces. $3/rose is the cost. Water containers are saved and recycled next year.
- 2018 was Year of the Bunny – Rotary float won the Princess Trophy
- Organizing entity has to raise the $ - may ride the float or walk alongside for a substantial donation
- 30 people on the team
- $100 to sit in seating near judges
- Clubs and individuals can donate: RoseFloat@RotaryFloat.org

ROTARY'S 4-WAY TEST of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL & BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

- The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.
