Last Weeks . . .

We only had 16 members in attendance last week. Remember we still have to pay for 30 meals, so attendance is very important.

The dictionaries have arrived and deliveries have begun. Many Thanks to Mary Lou Burns for directing this project.

Cheese sales have begun. Ron Morse has order sheets for each and everyone of us, so get out and sell, sell, sell. The cost is $17.00 per two pound wheel in a gift box and if you want to order 20 or more, there is a 10% discount. Deadline for orders is November 21 with delivery planned for the following week.

The church ladies are selling Christmas wreaths. Orders are being taken at this time.

Six Rotarians are needed to purchase and deliver food on 11/17 from 8-12 for the food pantry.

WARNING: Frank Shorey will be back in town on December 6th. But, he has to come and pick up his four cheese wheels.

There is a Future Leaders Seminar led by PDG George Rice being held on Sat. 11/10 from 9-12 at the Cape Elizabeth Town Hall. Anyone interested in a Rotary District position, including, but not limited to District Governor, should attend. If interested, let George know.

- Our guest speaker was Andrew Harris, Executive Director of the Deertrees Theater in Harrison. Andrew, who is from England, married a Mainer and moved to the area. Deertrees was built in 1936 as an opera house and has some of the best acoustics in the northeast. It seats 300-500 people and has a movable stage. Many famous actors and actresses have performed there over the years. The theater has seen it's financial ups and downs. He is currently trying to get the theater back on solid financial footing and hopes to increase the quality and number of shows being presented. They are planning a Celtic Festival the weekend after Labor Day in 2013.

Happy Dollars . . .

Dave Preble had three happy dollars, one for each point the Patriots won by against the Jets a game he attended with his Rotarian brother.

Susan Cairns is selling tickets for the "Road to Eden". The play was written by a local person and is being performed by local actors at the Grange Hall in Norway on November 9-10-11-15-16-17-18.

Glenn is flying to Florida to spend three weeks at a family reunion. Doyathink they can stand him for that long.

Andrew Harris was happy that he was invited to speak to us. He also wanted to let us know his wife is battling cancer and currently having treatments.

Susan drew Dan's ticket and she drew two blue balls for Dan on the 50/50. The pot is now over $100.00

The Four Way Test

1. Is it the Truth?
2. Is is fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
