Thought for the Week:

"If it ain't broke, fix it until it is."

~U.S. Government~

Rotary Moment – Patty read a passage from Past RI President Cliff Dochterman’s book, “As I was Saying” concerning the family of Rotary; that we can do a lot of good by joining Rotary, but that it is also a way to establish life long friendships.

Announcements:

President Chris attended a planning meeting with Kiwanis for the Special Olympics Dance which will be held on April 2nd. Things are on track.

Miranda is working on the St. Patrick’s Day luncheon which will be on Wednesday, March 16th. A flyer announcement has been placed on our FB page; Patty Rice has agreed to be the contact for reservations but has not yet had any calls. More flyers will be available for circulation next week. Kim will see about getting notices in the Advertiser and Sun Journal.

Last Week:

Dennis Smith of Norway was inducted as our newest member. Congratulations and welcome, Dennis! We are very happy that you have decided to join the King of Clubs!

Dave and Miranda presented a membership program. We worked at our tables, making lists of local businesses and a contacts that we might approach about joining us. We talked about why we joined Rotary, why we have stayed and other points such as projects, global efforts, the cost of membership, time commitment and comraderie – things to talk about when we are talking to others about joining. We all thought this was very worthwhile meeting and decided to have monthly membership meetings for the remainder of this Rotary year.

😊 Happy Dollars 😊 - Dan was happy to be meeting his sons in Memphis, Tennessee over the weekend. It is the first time in quite some time that they have been together. Kim was happy that swimming was over and happy that her team won the Sportsmanship Banner in the finals. Dennis was happy to become a member of the club. John had an announcement dollar that he talked with former member George Rubly and found out that he and Jean have sold their business and house and are moving to Westport Island which is on the coast by Wiscasset.

50/50 – Glenn drew Miranda’s number but she didn’t draw the King of Clubs.
