Good Evening and Welcome! Today is the 54th day of 2022. There are 311 days remaining in the year. This morning is a Zoom meeting. Our guest speaker is Susan Black, MD, from the Brunswick Coastal Rotary who will be speaking about her club's work with the Village Health Works in Kigutu, Burundi. Our greeter is Alice Paul.

Calendar: The first name listed is the Program Chair, the second is greeter. Please let Reader editor John Griffith know what your program is so it can be published in the Reader. You can reach John at 207-461-7158 or at griffs2@roadrunner.com. Please remember that when you are program chair, you are expected to lend a hand after the meeting putting away the club paraphernalia.

February:

28 – Board Meeting at South Paris Town Office, 5:30 PM

March:

2 – Classification talks and Ron Morse

9 – District New Member Orientation Program via Zoom, 6:30 PM – 7:30 PM

9 – March Students of the Month and Ed Millett

16 – Evening Meeting and Liz Knox

26 – Community Spaghetti Dinner, South Paris Fire Station

Announcements:

We are Zooming this week due to the ladies not coming in to prepare breakfast due to the Covid exposure last week. Unfortunately, Dave Preble tested positive for Covid after serving as greeter.

I did not attend last week's meeting, so the Reader is a bit brief this week. However, in talking with Co-President Peter, there were no announcements.

Be sure to enter your extra hours in the log book, or e-mail or otherwise inform George of the extra time you put in for the month.

Last Week:

Past member Perry Palmer was our guest Vocational speaker, concluding our Vocational Service month. Perry's talk was postponed from January.

😊 Happy and Sad Dollars 😊

If anyone had one that they want published next week, please e-mail it to me.

Pun for the Week:

Rumors of a food shortage at this year's spoonerism conference turned out to be a complete lack of pies.

Oh, Ok, here's another one!

How many ears does Captain Kirk have? Three – the right, the left and the final front ear.
