

EAST LONGMEADOW ROTARY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION
INCORPORATED (ELRMSFI) AND
EAST LONGMEADOW ROTARY FOUNDATION INCORPORATED (ELRFI)
SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENTS

Every year, ELRMSFI AND ELRFI awards numerous scholarships to high school seniors who are residents of East Longmeadow (despite school attended).

- High school seniors or technical/vocational students who are residents of East Longmeadow are eligible to apply for any of the scholarships (this includes students from East Longmeadow attending schools outside of the town).
- For Douglas Burack Culinary Arts Scholarships, those already attending training/college are eligible to apply if they are East Longmeadow residents.
- Children and grandchildren of East Longmeadow Rotarians are eligible to apply for the scholarships even if the child or grandchild does not reside in East Longmeadow.

~ Since its inception in 1986, the ELRMSFI has awarded $418,600 in scholarships.

~ Since 1993, the ELRFI has awarded $59,250 in scholarships.

Each application will be reviewed by the East Longmeadow Rotary Club Scholarship Committee and scored on the following criteria:

1. Academic Record: Official School Transcript of Grades, SAT and/or ACT scores (if SAT/ACT not taken due to cancellations, include PSAT scores if available)
2. School Contributions: Club membership, Athletics and School Activity Involvement
3. Community Contributions: Community Service that extends to the student's community outside of the school
4. Essay about future college plans and career goals. Described how further education will aid in fulfilling those goals.
5. Letters of recommendations: Three letters of recommendations are required. At least one of the letters must be from the student's advisor or teacher.
6. Applications must meet eligibility criteria (above).

Scholarship recipients are required to certify in writing that the scholarship award will be used for educational purposes.

The suspense date for APPLICATION receipt (not mailing date) is February 24, 2023. No applications will be accepted after that date. Please mail the applications and documents to East Longmeadow Rotary Club 6530, c/o Scholarship Committee, PO Box 571, East Longmeadow MA 01028. Please ensure that all attached documents are legible (see checklist).

Recipients and guests will be invited to attend an East Longmeadow Rotary Club meeting held in their honor in June 2023.

For 2023, the following scholarships are being offered for a total of $24,950 in scholarship awards between ELRMSFI and ELRFI.

- The Earl MacDonald Memorial Scholarship: Given in memory of Earl MacDonald who was an East Longmeadow Rotarian with generous contributions by his family. Amount for 2023 = one scholarship for $3500.
