Club Membership

Judy Levine, club membership chair, reported to the club on October 28. She announced the following milestones for the last 3 months.

September 16: Ellen Cook celebrated 4 years with Madison Breakfast Rotary

Sept. 18, Kevin Frost celebrated 7 years with MBR

October 1: Betsy and Doug Nordstrom celebrated 16 years with MBR but had been members of a different club before.

November 1: Mike Kafka celebrated 33 years with MBR.

On the following Rotary District web site <https://rotary6250.org/page/rotary-on-the-air-podcast> are pod casts of Rotary projects including one that Gary Muldoon did on Books for the World.

Engaged members:

- Tend to stay in Rotary longer
- Enjoy Rotary more
- Make a huge difference because they know more about possibilities.

Among the ways to be more engaged is to learn about what Rotary can do:

- Attend the district and international conferences
- Attend other club's meetings give you ideas
- Participate in Friendship Exchanges. One is going to Turkey in May and an incoming one will come in September, where we can host for a day.

- Participate in Vibrant Club Workshops – one in November 9, another in January in Madison
- Attach a club post card to a Rotary magazine and leave the magazine in a waiting room.
